The Instrumental Arts Program in the Department of Humanities encompasses the jazz and concert bands, orchestra, and the music lesson program. Ensembles are offered each semester as a one-credit course for college students, and are also open, with permission of the instructor, to faculty, alumni, and community members. Lessons are open to all and are a joint enterprise of the Fitchburg State Foundation and Department of Humanities, to serve both students on campus and individuals in the community who wish to learn to play an instrument, sing, or rekindle their passion for music.
